§ 1 Scope and relationship to the General Examination Regulations

- (1) These Programme-Specific Provisions apply to the Bachelor's Programme International Business in the Department of Business Studies of Rheinmark University of Applied Sciences.
- (2) The General Examination Regulations for the Bachelor's and Master's Programmes of Rheinmark University of Applied Sciences apply in addition, in the version applicable to the individual student.
- (3) These Provisions were adopted in English under Section 2 (4) of the General Examination Regulations. The English version is authoritative. Where these Provisions refer to the General Examination Regulations, the German text of those Regulations governs.
- (4) Deviations from the General Examination Regulations are marked as such. An overview of deviations is contained in Annex 3.

§ 2 Academic degree

- (1) On the basis of the passed bachelor's examination, Rheinmark University of Applied Sciences confers the academic degree Bachelor of Arts (B.A.).

§ 3 Admission requirements

- (1) Admission requires a higher education entrance qualification under the Higher Education Act of Rhineland-Palatinate.
- (2) Evidence of English language competence at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference is required. Applicants who completed their secondary education in English are exempt.
- (3) No prior knowledge of German is required for admission. Students are required to complete the German language modules IB-2-010 and IB-3-015 during the programme.

§ 4 Credit points and workload

- (1) One credit point corresponds to a workload of 25 hours in the Bachelor's Programme International Business.

[Fixed under Section 5 (3) of the General Examination Regulations within the range of Section 5 (2).]

- (2) The fixed value applies uniformly to all modules of the programme, including the study abroad semester, the bachelor's thesis and the colloquium.
- (3) The standard period of study is six semesters. The programme comprises 180 credit points, with 30 credit points per semester.

§ 5 Structure of the programme

- (1) The programme is structured into compulsory modules of 153 credit points, an elective area of 12 credit points, and the bachelor's thesis and colloquium of 15 credit points in total.
- (2) The fifth semester is the study abroad semester and is spent at a partner institution.

(3) The modules, their allocation to semesters, their volume and the forms of assessment are set out in the Study and Examination Plan (Annex 1).

§ 6 Study and Examination Plan

(1) The Study and Examination Plan is Annex 1 to these Provisions and forms part of them.

(2) The abbreviations used for forms of assessment are those of Annex 2 to the General Examination Regulations. Those abbreviations are given in German and are not translated.

§ 7 Forms of assessment

(1) The form of assessment for each module is set out in the Study and Examination Plan.

(2) Module part-examinations are provided for in modules IB-1-005, IB-5-021 and IB-6-022. Their weighting is set out in the Study and Examination Plan.

(3) Examinations are held in English, except in modules IB-2-010 and IB-3-015, which are held in German.

§ 8 Study abroad semester

(1) All students complete the fifth semester at a partner institution abroad. The study abroad semester comprises modules IB-5-020 and IB-5-021.

(2) Admission to the study abroad semester requires evidence of at least 100 credit points and a learning agreement approved by the examination board before departure.

(3) Achievements completed abroad are recognised in accordance with Section 18 of the General Examination Regulations and the Ordinance on the Recognition of Achievements Obtained Abroad of Rheinmark University of Applied Sciences.

(4) Where a student is unable to complete the study abroad semester for reasons beyond their control, the examination board may permit an equivalent domestic programme with an international focus. The decision is taken on application.

§ 9 Ungraded modules

(1) Module IB-5-020 (Study Abroad Semester) is ungraded and assessed as passed or not passed. It does not enter the overall grade.

[Deviation from Section 13 (3) of the General Examination Regulations, permitted under Section 13 (4).]

(2) The credit points of module IB-5-020 count towards the total volume of the programme notwithstanding the absence of a grade.

(3) All other modules of the programme are graded.

§ 10 Repetition of examinations

(1) Section 16 of the General Examination Regulations applies in the version applicable to the individual student.

(2) Module IB-5-020 may not be repeated. Where the module is assessed as not passed, the examination board decides on the further course of study on application.

§ 11 Recognition of achievements

(1) Section 18 of the General Examination Regulations governs the recognition of achievements.

(2) Students providing evidence of German language competence at level A2 of the Common European Framework or higher may apply for recognition of module IB-2-010. The corresponding credit points must be replaced by a module from Annex 2.

§ 12 Additional modules

(1) The Department offers module IB-5-029 (International Taxation) as an additional module. Credit points obtained in additional modules are recorded on the transcript but do not count towards the 180 credit points of the programme and do not enter the overall grade.

(2) Module IB-5-029 is not a member of the elective catalogue in Annex 2 and cannot be credited towards the elective area.

§ 13 Elective area

(1) Two modules totalling 12 credit points must be selected from the elective catalogue (Annex 2), one in the fourth and one in the sixth semester.

(2) The elective catalogue is exhaustively determined by Annex 2.

§ 14 Bachelor's thesis

(1) The bachelor's thesis comprises 12 credit points and forms module IB-6-023. The processing period is three months.

(2) Admission to the bachelor's thesis requires evidence of at least 120 credit points.

(3) The bachelor's thesis must be written in English.

(4) The thesis is supervised by an examiner of the Department. A second examiner participates in the assessment in accordance with Section 21 of the General Examination Regulations.

§ 15 Colloquium

(1) The bachelor's thesis concludes with a colloquium. The colloquium forms module IB-6-024 and comprises 3 credit points.

(2) The colloquium lasts 30 minutes and consists of a presentation of approximately 15 minutes and an academic discussion of approximately 15 minutes.

(3) The colloquium is held in English.

§ 16 Overall grade

(1) The overall grade is formed in accordance with Section 23 of the General Examination Regulations.

(2) Modules IB-6-023 and IB-6-024 enter the overall grade with a combined weight of 25 per cent.

[Fixed under Section 23 (3) of the General Examination Regulations.]

(3) The remaining graded modules enter the remaining 75 per cent weighted by credit points.

§ 17 Transitional provisions

(1) These Provisions apply to all students of the Bachelor's Programme International Business. The programme is offered for the first time in the winter semester 2022/2023.

(2) The applicable version of the General Examination Regulations is determined by the transitional provisions of the relevant amending ordinance. A declaration under Section 2 (3) of the First Amendment Ordinance must be submitted to the examinations office.

§ 18 Entry into force

(1) These Provisions enter into force on 1 September 2022.

(2) They are published in the Official Gazette of Rheinmark University of Applied Sciences.
